

The range of teaching areas, from composition, performance and theory, is rare in one person, and it is this range of skills, all at a high level, which have made him such a fine leader within the Conservatorium here.

At this time Mr Dimond is seeking to broaden his experiences through overseas performing and teaching experience, and we wish him all the luck that he deserves. Mr Dimond is a team-player, hard-working, communicative and dedicated. He comes with my highest recommendation.

If you require further information in respect to his teaching duties at the Queensland Conservatorium Griffith University please do not hesitate to contact me directly at any time.

I look forward to seeing Mr Dimond back here in Queensland in the future – he is a rare musician and teacher!

Faithfully,
